HARRY FINNEY KILLS HIMSELF; BELIEVED DERANGED

POTTER SENDS BULLET INTO BRAIN; BODY FOUND BY WIFE

Kills Himself In Kitchen of Home After Family Retired.

CAUSE IS NOT KNOWN

Victim Was Employed as Kiloplace at K. T. & K. Pottery.

Believed to have been temporarily deranged through overwork, Harry Finney, 40, a kiloplace, shot himself through the temple with a revolver in the kitchen of his home in St. Clair avenue shortly before 2 o'clock Tuesday morning. Death was instantaneous.

Mrs. Finney, wife of the dead man, was at a loss Tuesday to assign any reason for the suicide. She stated, however, that her husband had appeared careworn and tired for the past two weeks and she had urged that he consult a physician. The husband only dismissed her fears with a smile, she stated.

Mr. Finney worked a double turn at the Knowles, Taylor and Knowles pottery Monday and appeared in usual health Monday evening. The 12-year-old daughter of the couple retired Monday night at the usual hour but the father and mother remained until late.

Mrs. Finney, who also works in a local pottery, retired shortly before midnight, leaving the husband reading downstairs. She was awakened from her sleep a few hours later by the sound of a falling body. The daughter, it was stated Tuesday, has been subject to somnambulism and believing she had arisen in her sleep the mother went to the daughter's bed. The child was asleep and the woman then realized that something was wrong.

Rushing downstairs, Mrs. Finney discovered the lifeless body of her husband lying prostrate upon the kitchen floor, his head in a pool of his own blood. A .32 caliber revolver with which the man had sent the bullet into his temple, was found near the body.

The wife summoned Dr. Clyde R. Larkins and notified City hall of the occurrence. Dr. Larkins, when he arrived, found life extinct. Captain of Police George Toland arrived a few minutes after the discovery. The body was removed to the Sturgis morgue.

The domestic relations of the Finney family were pleasant, neighbors stated Tuesday. The husband was an industrious man and worked every day. The home in which the family now lives was erected but a few years ago and the husband spent most of his idle hours working around the place.

A thorough search of the house from cellar to attic was made by the officers but no liquor was discovered. The occurrence was not reported at once to police here but Chief of Police Hugh McDermott was advised Tuesday that an affidavit was to be filed against one of the men.

TIE-UP OF CARS FOR STEEL SHIPMENTS IS PLAN OF STRIKERS

Four Railroad Brotherhoods Will Be Asked to Call Out Members Handling Transportation For United States Steel Corporation ---"We've Got 'Em," Says Fitzpatrick.

BULLETIN

PITTSBURG, Oct. 21.—Rioting broke out in Braddock when loyal steel workers who were leaving the Edgar Thomson plant at noon were attacked by a crowd of strikers and their sympathizers. One state policeman and many of the men were badly beaten up. It was estimated that 1,000 men participated in the fighting. The workers had been fed in the mills until today when it was thought safe for them to go to their homes for dinner.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Plans for tying up all the railroad transportation facilities of the United States Steel corporation were discussed today at a conference between John H. Fitzpatrick, chairman of the national committee in charge of the steel strike and presidents of the four big railroad brotherhoods. Fitzpatrick made this announcement upon his arrival here today.

The brotherhoods will be asked to call out all members handling cars used for the shipment of steel from the mills under strike ban.

Fitzpatrick said the strikers "were marshaling their forces for victory." "We've got 'em," said he with a grin, "and all organized labor is going to help us to hold 'em. Our position shows increased strength this week. The ladies' garment workers gave us $250,000 for the commissaries we are starting to feed the strikers and their families. Other unions also are contributing generously."

To Open Commissary Stores

PITTSBURG, Oct. 21.—Indications that the steel strike leaders believe that the strike will be of long duration were seen today when it became known that commissary stores for the relief of the strikers are to be opened throughout the Pittsburgh district. Robt. McKitchin, president of the Central States Co-Operative Society, was in this city today arranging for the opening of the stores.

Despite the statements of operators that new men are being employed daily, the strikers' leaders insisted today that there have been no noticeable defections from their ranks and that the spirit of the men who are out is stronger now than at any time since the strike was called.

Counsel for the strikers professed not to be discouraged by the refusal of the court to grant a preliminary injunction against city officials and the police which would prevent them from interfering with meetings. Hearings on the petition for a permanent injunction will be held tomorrow.

MINGO MEN SEND PETITION TO COX CALLING FOR TROOPS

STEUBENVILLE Oct. 21.—The strike situation at Mingo Junction became more strained today when more men returned to work at the Carnegie Steel plant despite the efforts of strikers to restrain them. Two workmen were assaulted and a crowd of 400 gathered before the mill gates holding the men who returned to work.

Two strikers were arrested for throwing bricks. Special police and deputy sheriffs are being sworn in to maintain order.

Despite assurance of Mayor Frank McCoy, of Mingo, to Sheriff W. T. Baker that he could handle the situation, citizens are signing petitions asking Governor Cox to send troops to that point.

The men who returned to work have demanded that the authorities afford them protection.

The petitions signed largely by men who want to return to work at Mingo were forwarded to Governor Cox at Columbus today.

Action is sought on the part of the state executive by the petitioners to compel local authorities to provide protection against the strikers. To this end it is urged that state troops be sent there.

The claim was made today that 75 per cent of the Carnegie Company's employees want to return to work at Mingo.

HIGHS READY TO MEET LISBON

The battle for the interscholastic football championship of Columbian county will be continued next Saturday afternoon when Wellsville High goes to Lisbon to meet the county's high grididers.

The Orange and Black squad is sending in the race for the county honors. If Wellsville defeats Lisbon next Saturday and Salem the following Saturday, their way to the bunting will be comparatively clear. East Liverpool, East Palestine, Columbian, all have been beaten by county teams.

Lisbon, Salem and Wellsville are the three teams that have clean records, so far as the county games are concerned.

Coach Van Tilburg is confident that his squad will take over the county honors. Practically the same lineup will be used against the Lisbon squad as tied the South Hills high team of Pittsburg here last Saturday. Coach Van Tilburg still has a lot of tricks up his sleeve and states that Wellsville is confident of annexing the championship without difficulty.

The Tanks were carded to appear here two weeks ago, but on account of rain, which made the playing grounds at Central park, a veritable sea of mud, the engagement was postponed. The Tanks are considered one of the strongest independent teams in the lower valley. They held the Capitol Inn of Martins Ferry to seven points in a recent game. The Martins Ferry squad ranks above the average independent team in this section and the Follansbee team's performance indicates that a hard struggle is in store for the Antlers.

PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRY.

Mayor J. S. Wilson has headed off a contemplated stampede of out-of-town novelty dealers to East Liverpool for the city's homecoming celebration in honor of her 1,200 soldiers, sailors and marines on Hallowe'en night.

Realizing the possibilities of reaping a harvest of gold in the sale of noise-making apparatus and other appliances unusually brought into play on occasions of this nature, scores of novelty manufacturers, through their agents, have been appealing to the mayor by mail and telephone for permission to do business here for the one-night celebration. And the mayor in each instance has refused to grant a permit.

This is a commendable move, for if any profit is to be realized from the sale of novelties, etc., in connection with any celebration in East Liverpool, the home merchant is entitled to it. The few dollars paid for a peddler's license by street fakirs, etc., added little to the city treasury under previous administrations. On the other hand merchants in business in East Liverpool contribute materially each year in the way of rents, taxes, etc., to the general prosperity of the city.

And this action on the part of the mayor is no departure from the practice in effect since he assumed the office. When he was sworn in, Mayor Wilson announced that the custom of issuing licenses to street peddlers, fakirs, etc., which prevailed during administrations of his predecessors, would be discontinued. As a result, East Liverpool has had no street barkers during the past seventeen months.

CHILDREN'S BOOKS.

The early publishers' announcements this year contain one bit of encouraging news. There are to be fewer books for children and young people on the market this season than in 1918. In the last few years there have been so many makeshifts and denevers in the bookstores that the outlook for the children's literary taste seemed hopeless indeed.

There are publishers in the world, however, who have the courage to refuse manuscripts "too poor for publication." There is also a campaign being conducted by librarians all over the country for helping parents and children to find the really good books which exist in abundance to satisfy the child's needs.

The boys and girls today seem to be seeking more information from books than ever before. It is important that the histories and informative books offered them be authentic and readable. When it comes to stories and verse there is just as great need for selecting good books.

The older person who is guiding a child's reading should be aware of rewritten and re-edited classics. The fine old fairy tales and folk lore are too often tampered with by writers with no recognized ability for the work. The person who searches for the lovely old originals will be amply rewarded by the child-reader's greater happiness.

In selecting books of verse for children, too, care should be taken to secure real verse, not cheap jingles lacking rhyme, meter, wit and every artistic quality. The purchaser should not be led astray by colorful illustrations. Here again there are good and bad, and the good furnish far more lasting enjoyment than the bad. The parent, relative or friend who feels helpless before the piles of children's books can always receive help and advice in the selection of the right volumes from the local public librarian, or from the occasional man or woman presiding over a bookstore from love of the books and belief in them rather than from mere money-making desire.

PLAIN COTTON GOODS.

Plainer weaves of cotton goods are to be the thing next year. This is in direct opposition to the common belief in the cloth industry that "fashion will not be denied by considerations of price." Money, it seems, can neither buy nor manufacture the fancy fabrics.

The housewife will acclaim this news joyfully in the hope that the standard weaves of cotton goods may now return to their pre-war excellence of quality. The change, however, is not due to any protest of housewives either against prices or lowered quality of the goods they have been buying in recent years. They have protested, but they have gone ahead and bought of necessity and have paid the prices.

This return to simplicity in styles of goods has been forced by the other side of the industry. Manufacturers refuse to take orders for fancy types of cloth because they cannot get the textile workers to produce them. Orders for the plainer weaves are so plentiful that it is not necessary to attempt any others in order to make money. Mill workers seem to receive sufficient wages from the plainer work to make the slightly higher wages for the more difficult operations quite unattractive. Manufacturers report that when they ask weavers to run fancy looms the workers seek the easier jobs which are available.

None of the old methods such as advancing prices for fancy construction or reducing the number of looms to each weaver or paying higher wages seem to work this time. There is already a shortage of weavers, and creating more idle looms would not solve the problem.

There is nothing for it but to abandon for a season the fancy lawns, voiles, oxfords and marquises and to accept what the mills offer, regardless of Dame Fashion.

The farmers of Venango county, Pa., have declared for an eight-hour day. That may be all right for the farmers, but how are the cows going to get milked and the livestock fed and watered?

The great North Sea barrage of 50,000 mines, laid by the American navy, has been removed by the mine sweepers. Sweeping changes have certainly been made in those parts.

NEW YORK LETTER

By O. O. MCINTYRE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—A page from the diary of a modern Samuel Pepys: Up and came a courier afoot from S. Simpson, the barrister, for my new petrel wagon coat and I did lend it with great misgivings and the day took a bad turn albeit the sun was bright. My Lord Woodrow improves this day and he do lie under a great weight of mind.

All the morning I read T. Roosevelt's letter to his children and found them mighty fine and the likest of anything he has written. Too I read from Mr. Merrick's "Conrad in Quest of His Youth" and at the end found some mighty philosophy, quaintly writ. V. Porter came with Mistress Neysa McMein and he was vexing her mightily with his petty railing.

A brave luncheon of a broiled chop and a baked potato and a cold beaker of whey and noble tart of raspberries. For a walk through the town and saw Lee Conrey, the limner, dashing by. A gay patroliker thought I. News is that J. Knott is to come to town shortly from St. Louis which is news of little cheer for the players of poker.

On Madison avenue I looked into many homes of the rich and they looked so cold and forbidding and then into the J. P. Morgan museum like a museum. A few children I saw there were all prettied up and stiff and not like the happy children one sees elsewhere and I wondered why.

Home where I had sharp words with the attendant, he being a very knave, and I believe did steal my newly bought slippers. Came H. MacHarg, the scrivener, a strange good companion and droll at times and he told me of being on the jury that indicted the black box fighter champion Johnson and of the orgies he indulged in and of his women and I was sick at heart. And so to bed.

There is a merry cackle now and then in a careful perusal of the headlines of the New York newspapers. This is one for an evening paper when King Albert arrived:

KING ALBERT AND QUEEN

ARRIVED.

SOX FALL BEFORE GREAT

THRONGS.

Mixing royalty and baseball is democratic, but sometimes amusing.

Department stores are now selling houses cash down or on the installment plan. So acute is the shortage of housing accommodations that one enterprising store opened the new department. The houses are in three and four sections and may be set up in two or three weeks. The price ranges from $2,500 to $3,000. And they are said to be selling fast.

In one block in the West Forties the other day six strikes were in progress. One was a laundry strike, the other a hat frame makers' strike, another a cooks' strike. I do not remember the other three. I asked a hat frame maker how much he made a week and he said he averaged $35. The cooks' delegate said the men were asking for $25. They were getting $18. All the strikers were well dressed and I noticed that the majority were foreigners.

There is something very fascinating about New York around 5 o'clock Saturday evening. Salesgirls, worn out by the hard day, take on a new brightness. Young clerks step along quickly for some appointment. Everybody seems happy around the stores and shops save the night watchmen, who must sit in the lonely doorways all night and smoke. I now saw them do anything else. Except perhaps talk to passing policemen. Young men meet young girls on every corner. There must be a great reduction in the total supply of powder and rouge on Saturdays.

CAPITAL BLUNDERS

By BERNICE CONE.

Maida Lane, teacher at Primary No. 5, shrugged into her yellow sweater and went out, locking the door of the empty school house after her. She had always loved yellow. It was, she said, the color of spring sunshine and daffodils. Unfortunately it was also the color of a slip of paper that rustled hatefully in the sweater pocket as she walked—a telegram from Phil Drew.

"Due in New York Monday, 10 a. m. Bride with me," it announced cheerfully.

"Bride with me" had resolved itself into a maddening refrain. Everything that she did kept time to it.

The road from the schoolhouse to her home was an unfrequented one. A little way down it stood a great red oak tree. Bob was waiting there as usual. Quite suddenly Maida threw her arms around his neck and surprised herself by sobbing her heart out against his tan coat. "Woof!" said the collie huskily; "Woof!"

"The worst of it is, Bob," said the girl, sitting up at length, "I haven't the right to feel this way, even. Just because you've gone with a fellow all through high school doesn't make you engaged to him. And if he enlists and goes across the water, and you knit for him, and pray for him, and write to him, and he writes to you, and you send him candy and cigarettes and things, and he sends you souvenirs, and—and—why, you haven't any call to resent it if he gets married, have you? And there's no reason at all why you should get bitter over it."

"And, Bob," continued the dog's mistress earnestly, "if you've so far forgotten your human nature as to be too frankly happy when the letters come, and too openly puffed up over the souvenirs, why, then, you must expect Brookville to smile little, and pray a little, and pity you some when you receive a telegram like this.

"So we'll be awfully nice to Mr. and Mrs. Philip Drew, but not too nice, or Brookville will know how we feel—and that's one thing, Bob: Brookville may guess that we feel badly, but it's never going to know absolutely certain, sure. Come on, boy; let's be happy! Race you!"

With a brave little attempt at laughter from Maida and a joyous bark from Bob they were off.

On Monday afternoon, as the teacher of No. 5 again reached for her yellow sweater, a shadow fell across the schoolhouse floor. She looked up quickly. Phil Drew's six feet filled the door frame. The sunlight back of him gave to his figure the illusion of a statue done in bronze. Maida's heart began to beat a glad welcome that was as quickly drowned in the refrain, "Bride with me."

She held out her hand formally. "Phil Drew!" she exclaimed, with a smile and what she considered the proper amount of polite interest. "I'm so glad to see you back again!"

The bronze statue blinked in amazed chagrin. " Didn't you get my telegram?" it demanded.

"Of course. It was so thoughtful of you to let me know just when you were coming. I want to congratulate you," she continued sweetly. "It will give me a great deal of pleasure to meet Mrs. Drew."

"Huh?" inquired the bronze one, too dazed for elegance of speech.

"I'm looking forward to meeting Mrs. Drew," Maida repeated, slightly puzzled in her turn. "Your—your telegram said—"

"That we were due at ten," interrupted Phil. "I hoped you'd meet me."

"Why—" she faltered. "I—I didn't think that you would want me to."

Phil frowned. "Look here, Maida," he protested, "I don't know what you're driving at, but you don't seem overjoyed to see me, that's sure. If there's someone else, why don't you say so, and not—"

"No," said Maida with the tragic finality of eighteen, "there will never be anyone else for me."

Lieutenant Philip Drew seized hungrily upon this assurance, and would have seized hungrily upon Maida, but that lady indignantly pushed him away. Her eyes blazed angrily, but there was a hint of tears in her voice. "I think you're the funny one," she said, thrusting the telegram into his hands. "To send me this, and then come here and pretend—"

"Ha, ha!" vociferated Lieutenant

Phil, when he read the message. "That's rich—Bride with—. Say, girlie, did you honestly think—why that's Tom Pride—you know. I wrote you about him, my buddy—he's over at the house now; came home with me—best fellow that ever lived. Just a little mistake in capital, that's all. 'Bride with—no, sweetheart, I had to come home to get one of those."

BANS OUT-OF-TOWN DEALERS IN NOVELTIES

"East Liverpool's reception for its soldier boys will be a real homecoming and not a street bazaar."

This ultimatum, voiced by Mayor J. S. Wilson Monday sounds the death-knell for a half hundred amusement concerns who had planned to reap a rich harvest here on Hallowe'en night when the city turns out to extend the hand of welcome to its sons who donned the government's uniform during the world war.

Scouts of requests for permission to erect stands and operate amusement features during the one-night celebration have been received through the mail and over the telephone, Mayor Wilson said. To each of these Mayor Wilson has but one answer—"nothing doing."

Orders for the plainer weaves are so plentiful that it is not necessary to attempt any others in order to make money. Mill workers seem to receive sufficient wages from the plainer work to make the slightly higher wages for the more difficult operations quite unattractive. Manufacturers report that when they ask weavers to run fancy looms the workers seek the easier jobs which are available.

None of the old methods such as advancing prices for fancy construction or reducing the number of looms to each weaver or paying higher wages seem to work this time. There is already a shortage of weavers, and creating more idle looms would not solve the problem.

There is nothing for it but to abandon for a season the fancy lawns, voiles, oxfords and marquises and to accept what the mills offer, regardless of Dame Fashion.

The farmers of Venango county, Pa., have declared for an eight-hour day. That may be all right for the farmers, but how are the cows going to get milked and the livestock fed and watered?

The great North Sea barrage of 50,000 mines, laid by the American navy, has been removed by the mine sweepers. Sweeping changes have certainly been made in those parts.

NEW YORK LETTER

By O. O. MCINTYRE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—A page from the diary of a modern Samuel Pepys: Up and came a courier afoot from S. Simpson, the barrister, for my new petrel wagon coat and I did lend it with great misgivings and the day took a bad turn albeit the sun was bright. My Lord Woodrow improves this day and he do lie under a great weight of mind.

All the morning I read T. Roosevelt's letter to his children and found them mighty fine and the likest him of anything he has written. Too I read from Mr. Merrick's "Conrad in Quest of His Youth," and at the end found some mighty philosophy, quaintly writ. V. Porter came with Mistress Neysa McMein and he was vexing her mighty with his petty razzle.

A brave luncheon of a broiled chop and a baked potato and a cold beaker of whey and a noble tart of raspberries. For a walk through the town and saw Lee Conrey, the limner, dash by. A gay patroliker thought I. News is that J. Knott is to come to town shortly from St. Louis which is news of little cheer for the players of poker.

On Madison avenue I looked into many homes of the rich and they looked so cold and forbidding and even the J. P. Morgan museum like a mansoum. A few children I saw there were all prettied up and stir and not like the happy children one sees elsewhere and I wondered why.

Home where I had sharp words with the attendant, he being a very knave, and I believe did steal my newly bought slippers. Came H. MacHarg, the scrivener, a strange good companion and droll at times and he told me of being on the jury that indicted the black box fighter champion Johnson and of the orgies he indulged in and of his women and I was sick at heart. And so to bed.

There is a merry cackle now and then in a careful perusal of the headlines of the New York newspapers. This is one for an evening paper when King Albert arrived:

KING ALBERT AND QUEEN ARRIVE.

SOX FALL BEFORE GREAT THRONGS.

Mixing royalty and baseball is democratic, but sometimes amusing.

Department stores are now selling houses cash down or on the installment plan. So acute is the shortage of housing accommodations that one enterprising store opened the new department. The houses are in three and four sections and may be set up in two or three weeks. The price ranges from $2,500 to $3,000. And they are said to be selling fast.

In one block in the West Forties the other day six strikes were in progress. One was a laundry strike, the other a hat frame makers' strike, another a cooks' strike. I do not remember the other three. I asked a hat frame maker how much he made a week and he said he averaged $35. The cooks' delegate said the men were asking for $25. They were getting $18. All the strikers were well dressed and I noticed that the majority were foreigners.

There is something very fascinating about New York around 5 o'clock Saturday evening. Salesgirls, worn by the hard day, take on a new brightness. Young clerks step along quickly for some appointment. Everybody seems happy around the stores and shops save the night watchmen, who must sit in the lonely doorways all night and smoke. I new saw them do anything else. Except perhaps talk to a passing police officer. Young men meet young girls on every corner. There must be a great reduction in the total supply of powder and rouge on Saturdays.

CAPITAL BLUNDERS

By BERNICE GONE.

Maida Lane, teacher at Primary No. 5, shrugged into her yellow sweater and went out, locking the door of the empty school house after her. She had always loved yellow. It was, she said, the color of spring sunshine and daffodils. Unfortunately it was also the color of a slip of paper that rustled hatefully in the sweater pocket as she walked—a telegram from Phil Drew.

"Due in New York Monday, 10 a. m. Bride with me," it announced cheerfully. "Bride with me" had resolved itself into a maddening refrain. Everything that she did kept time to it.

The road from the schoolhouse to her home was an unfeigned one. A little way down it stood a great red oak tree. Bob was waiting there as usual. Quite suddenly Maida threw her arms around his neck and surprised herself by sobbing her heart out against his tan coat. "Woof!" said the collie huskily. "Woof!"

"The worst of it is, Bob," said the girl, sitting up at length. "I haven't the right to feel this way, even. Just because you've gone with a fellow all through high school doesn't make you engaged to him. And if he enlists and goes across the water, and you knit for him, and pray for him, and write to him, and he writes to you, and you send him candy and cigarettes and things, and he sends you souvenirs, and—why, you haven't any call to resent it if he gets married, have you? And there's no reason at all why you should get bitter over it."

"And, Bob," continued the dog's mistress earnestly, "if you've so far forgotten your human nature as to be too frankly happy when the letters came, and too openly puffed up over the souvenirs, why, then, you must expect Brookville to smile a little, and pry a little, and pity you some when you receive a telegram like this."

"So we'll be awfully nice to Mr. and Mrs. Philip Drew, but not too nice, or Brookville will know how we feel—and that's one thing, Bob: Brookville may guess that we feel badly, but it's never going to know absolutely certain, sure. Come on, boy; let's be happy! Race you!"

With a brave little attempt at laughter from Maida and a joyous bark from Bob they were off.

On Monday afternoon, as the teacher of No. 5 again reached for her yellow sweater, a shadow fell across the schoolhouse floor. She looked up quickly. Phil Drew's six feet filled the door frame. The sunlight back of him gave to his figure the illusion of a statue done in bronze. Maida's heart began to beat a glad welcome that was as quickly drowned in the refrain, "Bride with me."

She held out her hand formally. "Phil Drew!" she exclaimed, with a smile and what she considered the proper amount of polite interest. "I'm so glad to see you back again!"

The bronze statue blinked in amazed chagrin. " Didn't you get my telegram?" it demanded.

"Of course. It was so thoughtful of you to let me know just when you were coming. I want to congratulate you," she continued sweetly. "It will give me a great deal of pleasure to meet Mrs. Drew."

"Huh?" inquired the bronze one, too dazed for elegance of speech.

"I'm looking forward to meeting Mrs. Drew," Maida repeated, slightly puzzled in her turn. "Your—your telegram said—"

"That we were due at ten," interrupted Phil. "I hoped you'd meet me."

"Why—" she faltered. "I—I didn't think you would want me to."

Phil frowned. "Look here, Maida," he protested, "I don't know what you're driving at, but you don't seem overjoyed to see me, that's sure. If there's someone else, why don't you say so, and not—"

"No," said Maida with the tragic finality of eighteen. "There will never be anyone else for me."

Lieutenant Philip Drew seized hungrily upon this assurance, and would have seized hungrily upon Maida, but that lady indignantly pushed him away. Her eyes blazed angrily, but there was a hint of tears in her voice. "I think you're the f-funny one," she said, thrusting the telegram into his hands. "To send me this, and then come here and pretend—"

"Ha, ha!" vociferated Lieutenant Phil, when he read the message. "That's rich—Bride with—". Say, girlie, did you honestly think—why that's Tom Pride—you know. I wrote you about him, my buddy—he's over at the house now; came home with me—best fellow that ever lived. Just a little mistake in capital, that's all. 'Bride with—' no, sweetheart, I had to come home to get one of those."

Sad is Sad.

A mother, who was rather fond of the cheaper 10, 20, 30-cent melodramas, one afternoon took her young daughter, who had grown to consider herself above that sort of thing.

The daughter was bored, but the mother was greatly interested, and finally, when the heroine had got into a seemingly inextricable position, broke down and sobbed heartily.

"Mother, I wouldn't cry here," whispered the daughter significantly, accenting the last word.

"Let me alone," replied the other, hysterically. "It's a thing is sad, it's sad; I can't cry according to price."

"East Liverpool's reception for its soldier boys will be a real homecoming and not a street bazaar!"

This ultimatum, voiced by Mayor J. S. Wilson Monday sounds the death-knell for a half hundred amusement concerns who had planned to reap a rich harvest here on Hallowe'en night when the city turns out to extend the hand of welcome to its sons who donned the government's uniform during the world war.

Scores of requests for permission to erect stands and operate amusement features during the one-night celebration have been received through the mail and over the telephone, Mayor Wilson said. To each of these Mayor Wilson has but one answer—"nothing doing."

NEW FISHING LICENSE LAW PROHIBITS ALIENS

BOSTON—Massachusetts has opened a new avenue to bring aliens to citizenship. A fishing license law just put into effect prohibits aliens from fishing in the Bay State's inland waters unless they have taxable property amounting to at least $500.

There are approximately 300,000 aliens in Massachusetts, according to the Bureau of Statistics, and of this number it is said 25 per cent are devout fishermen. Their fondness for the outdoors and the fishing privileges they have enjoyed in the past will lead them, say the Commissioners on Fisheries and Game, to seek the folds of citizenship so that they might follow their pursuits.

What's In Your Bottle of Milk?

YOU are right to rely on milk! It is your best food—it brings health and strength—it is the least expensive nourishment in existence.

But what if you could get a milk just twice as rich, twice as creamy, twice as nourishing as dairy milk?

You can. That double richness—that nourishment twice the quantity of dairy milk—is exactly what you get in a bright tin of Every Day Milk. Nothing is added—nothing but water taken out.

And although you will enjoy its cream-like taste and its richness, you can buy it for much less than the cost of cream!

That is why women like you, who care about housekeeping, use Every Day instead of cream on cereals and in coffee—in cooking—and give it (with water added) to their children to drink.

Be independent of the ice man and the milk man. Every day use Every Day—the safe and pure milk.

REFORMATORY REFORMS URGED

CLEVELAND, Oct. 21.—Following an inspection of the state reformatory at Mansfield, Stephen M. Young, first assistant prosecutor of Cuyahoga county announced his intention of proposing the following legislative reform in behalf of the institution:

"Doubling present annual appropriation or eliminating the reformatory from the state penal system on the grounds that efficient management is impossible under present budget."

"Doubling number of guards to stop escapes."

"Eliminating trusty work at state tuberculosis hospital at Mt. Vernon unless trustees can be properly guarded."

"Raising the minimum sentence a prisoner must serve before being eligible for parole from 13 to 25 months."

SAYS SOLDIER VOTE IS DRY

COLUMBUS, Oct. 21.—"Don't worry about the soldier vote. It will be dry," said Col. Dan Morgan Smith, World war veteran and leader of the "battalion of death," addressing a mass meeting here. He said the soldiers did not need liquor on the firing line and they did not need it now.

"Can you imagine for a minute that the American men who were willing to sacrifice everything during the war for the love of humanity will vote to return the saloon that caused universal harm and unhappiness?" he asked.

"I have just one more good fight in me and the Bolsheviks can get it," he declared when speaking of the country's unrest. He declared the American buck private the hero of the last war and the Civil war veterans the "kings of them all."

CHARLES RAY IN "HAY FOOT, STRAW FOOT"

Charles Ray has a unique art of making us laugh at the awkward ways of the country youth and at the same time winning our sympathy for the boy who is made the butt of jokes by his thoughtless associates. No story in which he has ever appeared gave greater opportunity for the development of this characterization than "Hay Foot, Straw Foot," the latest Paramount Ince photoplay which opened a two days engagement at the Strand theater with a great success yesterday.

The story deals with a patriotic farm boy who goes to a training camp as a raw recruit and there is made the butt of jokes of his more sophisticated comrades. He falls in love with a girl of the village who appears one evening at a home talent performance at the camp theater. Later he rescues her from the villain and to protect her honor suffers humiliation even being sent to the guard house and summoned for courts-martial.

The girl, however, exonerates him and he is proven to be a true American gentile and brave soldier. Mr. Ray wins new laurels for himself in this part.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair too often than dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wymeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep.

S.O.S.

If Constipated, Bilious or Headachy, take
"Cascarets"

Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, or sour, gassy stomach—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels. Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gasses, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep.

Tully Marshall, Thomas Santschi, Spottswood Aitken, Mahlon Hamilton, Wesley Barry, Ralph Graves, Thomas Jefferson, James Neill and Edwin Stevens.

As Judith Rutledge, Miss Stewart plays the role of a country girl who has idealized the life and surroundings of the large cities. As a stenographer she is involved in the family affairs of her employer, the wealthy Mr. Warren, whose death results from a violent argument with his son Fred. On his deathbed the elder Warren makes a final request that his son marry Judith.

This marriage is followed by a series of business and domestic misunderstandings which crumple the picture with unusually interesting situations.

WANT MINISTER IN MINING CAMP

Gold and Copper District In Northern Manitoba Says Clergyman Must Be "He-Man and Good Poker Player."

WINNIPEG, Can., Oct. 21.—They are looking for a minister in the gold and copper camps of the Athapuskow Lake country in Northern Manitoba, but he will have to measure up to the miners' own specifications. Here is their advertisement that appeared in the Pas Herald:

"Wanted—Minister of the gospel for Athapuskow camp. Must be a good poker player."

"None of thee namby-pamby preachers need apply," said Tom Powers, who brought the ad to the Pas. "We want a he-man who wears a mackinaw jacket and stuffs his pants in his boots and can paddle a canoe and give a good account of himself in knock-down, drag-out row."

"If he can throw his legs under the mahogany with the gang and show them he is a good short-card player, he'll certainly command their respect. There's a lot of poker going on and if the parson wants to pan color in his missionary work among us rough lads, the poker table will be about as good a pulpit as he can find."

Since the recent sensational gold strike at Goose Lake there has been a rush of miners and prospectors to the Athapuskow region, one hundred miles beyond the Pas, which is at the northern terminus of a spur of the Canadian National Railway's transcontinental line. The army of gold seekers is made up of settlers and farm laborers from the farming country to the south and of old-time mining men from all over Canada and veterans of the Klondike and Nevada stampede.

Prospectors are out in the woods everywhere in the Athapuskow Lake country. Everywhere has the gold fever. New camps, as wild and picturesque as those of "bonanza" days in the American West, are springing up like magic. The whole country is overlaid with gold, silver and copper. Scientists say the ore body is the richest and most extensive on the continent.

Religious bodies in Winnipeg are planning to answer the "Macedonian cry" from the North. The Salvation Army has hurried a worker into the new field. Rev. C. W. Gordon, known to literature as "Ralph Connor," fa-

FRESHMEN SENATORS

Intimate Personal Sketch of the New Arrivals in Congress Who Will Pilot the Nation Through Reconstruction Days.

By D. M. CHURCH.

WASHINGTON, October 21.—Of the freshmen senators now ending their first few weeks in the service of the United States none has had a longer experience in the government service than Senator William J. Harris of Georgia.

Senator Harris first became acquainted with the life of the senate and the capitol as a secretary to the late Senator A. S. Clay. This gave him his start in politics and public service, and he next became a member of the state senate of Georgia. Later Senator Harris was named as director of the United States census bureau, then he became acting secretary of the department of commerce and finally was a member of the federal trade commission when he entered the lists to run for the senate against Senator Hardwick. His popularity in his home state is shown by the fact that he carried 114 out of 152 counties in his state.

Speechmaking is not the long suit of the new senator from Georgia, despite his long service with the government, and oftentimes he has been importuned by reporters of the Congressional Record for more complete remarks on measures which he has introduced.

The high cost of living is one of the pet subjects of Senator Harris. As a member of the federal trade commission he was instrumental in the investigation of the packers, and he has followed the findings of that commission in the senate and has attacked the packers wherever possible and has offered legislation which has been aimed at the control of the packers.

Almost diminutive in stature, Senator Harris is nevertheless impressive because of his very great energy and the impression of intense concentration which he gives to every subject that comes before his attention.

Senator Harris is rated as one of the closest friends of President Wilson and has aided him on many occasions by giving the true interpretation of the purposes of the president.

Senator Harris was born at Cedartown, Ga., February 3, 1868, and was a graduate of the University of Georgia. He married Julia Knox Hull Wheeler, daughter of General Joseph Wheeler.

POLAND TO GET AID FROM U.S.

According to a report published by the European relief committee of the National Lutheran council, 437 Fifth avenue, New York, it is likely that the Lutherans of America will make a loan of a million dollars to the Lutherans of Poland in order that they may be re-established on their farms and in their occupations.

Rev. O. H. Pannkoke of New York, in charge of the campaign for clothing and money, made the following statement:

"We are facing two vexing problems in trying to help the Lutherans of Poland. The immediate problem is to bring relief. A group of 600,000 people are in danger of dying by tens of thousands unless clothing is supplied them before the winter is far advanced. We have that task well in hand now. From practically every state clothing is on the way in carload lots. Much is already crossing the sea to Danzig.

"While this means much to the people over there it seems to us it is only a temporary palliative. It is not a cure. Next year will find them where they are this year, again a charge on our charity.

"Their need is credit. They cannot get it in Europe. They are asked to pay 25 per cent interest on insignificant sums. It is a pity the Paris conference did nothing to make credits available to rehabilitate life in Europe."

NEGRO KILLS GIRL; SLAIN BY MOB

MARIANNA, Ark., Oct. 21.—Alexander Wilson, negro, was shot and instantly killed late last night by a mob of white men near Skidmore, Ark., when he attempted to escape after murdering Ruth Murrah, 18-year old white girl.

According to reports received here the negro shot Miss Murrah when she remonstrated with him for stealing corn.

CORNS COME OFF LIKE BANANA PEEL

"GETS-IT" LEAVES TOO SMOOTH AS YOUR PALM. NEVER FAIRS.

Ever peel off a banana skin? Well, that's the idea of "Gets-It" peeled off any corn or calus. Nothing else in the world will do it.

"2 DROPS OF 'GETS-IT' GOODBYE CORNS!"

but "Gets-It" because of the new secret principle in the "Gets-It" formula. "Gets-It" does away forever with "contraptions," "wrappy" plasters, ointments that rub off, blood-letting knives and scissors. "Gets-It" gets into the "wick" of the corn. "Gets-It" eases pain. It takes but a second or two to use "Gets-It." There's no fussing or trouble. It dries immediately. You put your stocking right back on again. The corn will come off painlessly in one complete piece. That's common-sense. It never fails. "Gets-It," the only sure, guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. MFD by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. Sold in East Liverpool and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Carnahan's Pharmacy, T. R. Ashbaugh, Bulger's Pharmacy, Jesse D. Holloway, C. G. Anderson and John Hodson.

GREATEST ALL-STAR CAST

There is a "Kingdom of Dreams" in every woman's heart and this is the story of how one woman found her soul's mate through a marriage of convenience.

The remarkable array of talent to be seen in this unrivaled photoplay was assembled for one purpose—to make, as nearly as humanly possible, a perfect photoplay.

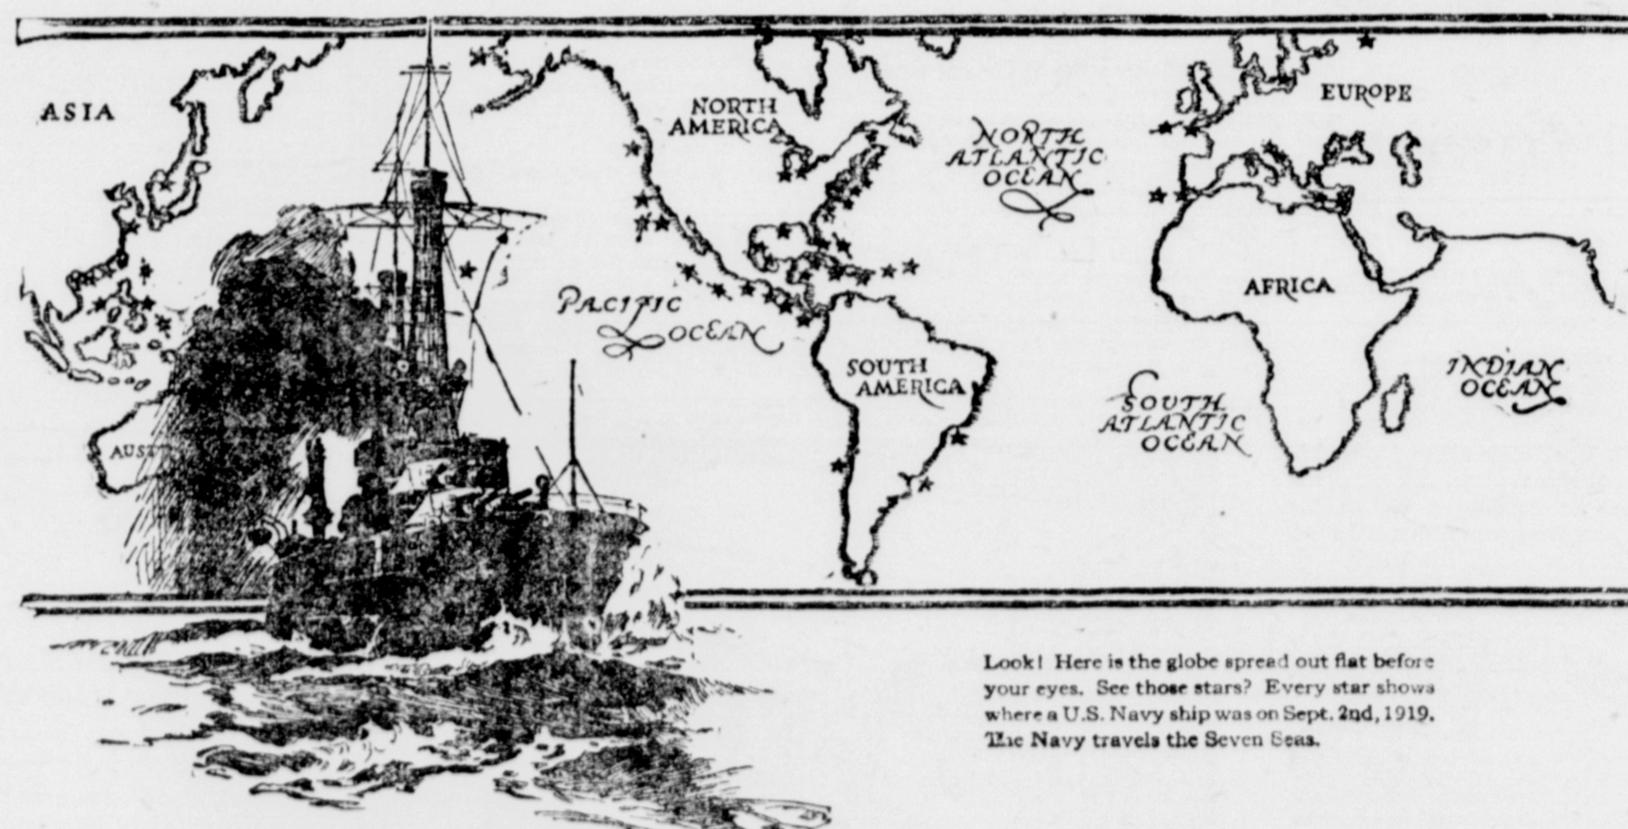

One of the best known of these artists, whose yearly earnings run into five figures, appears in but three scenes but the portrait he draws is a living likeness of a soul in duress.

URGE "HEALTH CENTER" PLAN

CLEVELAND, Oct. 21. — In accordance with "national safety" the Lake Division headquarters of the American Red Cross of Cleveland, O., announce a new plan of the Red Cross to foster the plan of the Red Cross centers" throughout the country as a part of its peace-time program of service to Americans.

The first step in the Red Cross health program was the extension of the public nursing service. The second step is to be the mobilization of Red Cross interest and influence for the establishment of health centers in every community where conditions make this desirable and possible.

A health center is the headquarters for the public health work of a community. Its purpose is to educate the people in matters of health and prevention of disease. It is a place where they can be taught to keep well rather than a place where they may go to be cured.

That a far more vigorous campaign is needed in this country to promote physical welfare was made clear by the selective service examination in which a third of all candidates were rejected for active service because of physical disability.

Agencies co-operating in a health center will vary according to community needs and organizations. A complete health center will have in it a public health dispensary and clinic for the prevention of disease and dissemination of health information. Offices of the city health work will be located there as well as offices of allied agencies such as home service and children's aid. It will be the disaster headquarters and the center of the war on tuberculosis. Instruction will be given at the health center in child welfare subjects, in social and mental hygiene and prevention of accidents, home nursing and dietetics. Dental clinics and the out-patient department of the local hospital may be included in the health center.

The Red Cross has not thought of attempting either to enroach upon the field of national, state or local health authorities, or to supersede any of the accredited agencies carrying on special health work. The Red Cross will promote the health center as a focus to bring together all community agencies dealing with the health of the people.

The fostering of health centers is to be looked upon not only as permitted Red Cross activity, but as highly desirable means of expressing Red Cross spirit in an enduring form.

Health work is an important feature of the Red Cross peace program.

TWO BILLS TO HIT HIGH COST

COLUMBUS, Oct. 21. — There will be at least two bills introduced in the legislature when it reconvenes in December, which will have to do with the high cost of living. One will provide for severe penalty for hoarding food-stuffs in cold storage. The other is designed to stop rent profiteering.

The food control bill has already been prepared and was in the possession of Attorney General Price when he went to Washington to confer with attorney generals of the various states. It not only provides punishment for those who hold food in storage over a prescribed length of time, but it also provides a means of disposing of such foodstuffs.

The attitude of legislators who have been in Columbus this fall is such that it is safe to say that a bill with "teeth" will be passed. Members of the legislature are gathering facts from the county investigations and when this bill is ready for the hopper, it will not be partisan measure.

Just as the people legislated the legal amount of interest to be charged so will they legislate in regard to rents, is the opinion of those who are

Asserts New Discovery Brings Blessed Relief To Rose and Hay Fever Sufferers

Can Make It Yourself At Home At Trifling Expense

In spite of all the doubters and scoffers, a man in Kentucky, who changed his annoying and distressing hay fever into less than a mild cold, claims most emphatically that if taken in time hay fever can be conquered or at least made so harmless that it is not even bothersome.

He gave his discovery to scores of other sufferers with the most remarkable results and has recently been prevailed upon to dispense it through pharmacists to all hay fever sufferers who still have faith that nature has provided an effective remedy for this common yet miserable disease.

And best of all this remedy costs almost nothing. Get a one ounce bottle of Mentholized Arctine at any drug store, pour the contents into a pint bottle and fill the pint bottle with water that has been boiled.

Then gargle as directed and twice daily snuff or spray each nostril thoroughly.

That's all there is to it; so simple that a lot of people will say that it can't do the work; but oftentimes simple natural remedies are the best as you will find after using.

If you will make up a pint and use it for a week or ten days you need not be surprised if your unwelcome yearly visitor fails to appear.

interested in legislation providing for punishment and regulation of alleged rent grafters. Several members of the legislature have expressed themselves as being in favor of fixing a legal rate of rent interest, just as the legislature has fixed the amount of interest that can be charged on money.

Interest in political circles centers about the committee investigating state departments with a view of eliminating needless boards and combining different departments of the state government. It is expected that the committee will have its report ready for early consideration of the legislature and it also expected that there will be some partisan politics in the consideration of the recommendations.

Many of the present boards and commissions are the result of the Harrison administration. Others were created during the first term of Governor Cox and still others are the result of legislation under the administration of Governor Willis.

DISAPPEARANCE OF GENERAL JADWIN IS CAUSING CONCERN

General Edgar Jadwin.

The disappearance of General Jadwin is causing considerable anxiety in Washington and army circles. After the Morganthau commission, of which he was a member, had finished its work he was instructed by the American peace delegation to proceed to Kiel to report conditions in the Ukraine. Lieut. H. A. Bowe of the British military control office at Warsaw accompanied him. Neither has been heard from since. It is reported that they were captured and shot. General Jadwin was construction engineer at the Panama canal under General Goethals and during the war was in command of the service of supplies for the U. S. army.

Tires! Tires! Tires!
Sell tires, not adjustments. Sell satisfaction, not trouble.

The dealer who spends most of his time making adjustments, seldom has to spend much time taking his profits to the bank.

Placing a 6,000-mile guarantee on a 3,000-mile tire won't make the tire run a mile farther. You've got to begin with the tire.

When practically every man who comes through your door comes to buy and not to complain, you can figure you are handling the right tire and have made a start toward prosperity.

From the nature of the service an automobile tire gives there will always be some complaints. There will be enough complaints on a good tire, and more than enough on the medium or cheap tire. Why invite trouble?

If you wanted a continuous ride without trouble or change, would you call for a 6,000-mile ticket on a road that only ran 3,000 miles, or would you pick out the road where others were riding the full distance without bother?

Come to our shop to get the tires that make the mileage without hunting for the adjustments.

FARMERS COMB STATE FOR BARRELS TO STORE CIDER

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.—This section of the state is being combed for cider barrels or anything in the form of a receptacle that will hold apple juice.

The apple juice, which used to retail for fifteen cents a gallon, now brings eighty cents for the same measure.

While the situation looks good to the farmers for big money, their activity may lessen in a few weeks when the treasury department gives out notice through the internal revenue office of what is coming to the government as a tax on every gallon of the apple juice sold as a beverage.

John Landon Macadam, inventor of macadamized roads, refused a knighthood before his death in 1836.

PICK JURY FOR MURDER TRIAL

FREMONT, Oct. 21.—With nine jurors tentatively chosen, completion of the jury that will try Tony Elardo for the murder of Mary De Francisco, was expected today. The first venire of jurymen was exhausted yesterday and Judge John T. Garver ordered another venire of 40 to report, this morning.

The brutal killing of the De Francisco woman last June aroused considerable feeling at the time and this has made difficult the selection of a jury. The body of the woman was found partly burned in a brush heap on a farm near here. It was not identified for several days.

Elardo, Samuel Contale and Philip Corcelli were later arrested in connection with the murder and indictments followed.

There was every indication today that Elardo will make a hard fight for his life.

DRY LEADERS CLAIM VICTORY IN CANADA

OTTAWA, Ontario, Oct. 21.—Dry leaders claimed at an early hour today that the "drys" had won the prohibition referendum by a majority of 100,000 votes. The result was influenced chiefly by the dry landslide in the rural districts.

In the parliament the United Farmers won 41 seats, Conservatives 28, Liberals 23, Labor 11 and independents one. Premier Hearst was defeated for re-election.

The air of "The Star Spangled Banner" is said to have been written by Samuel Arnold, a Briton, in 1783.

OUTLINE MILL MEN'S DEMANDS

Strikers Distribute Bills In Chester—Situation Here Said to Be Unchanged Tuesday.

As a means of acquainting the public as to the causes of the general strike of steel workers throughout the United States, hand bills, giving the 12 demands which the mill men are asking for a settlement of the strike, were distributed over the entire town last night. The hand bill is signed by the National Committee for Organizing Iron and Steel Workers, John Fitzpatrick, Chicago, chairman, and Wm. Z. Foster, Pittsburgh, secretary-treasurer.

Chief among the demands are the eight-hour day, one day's rest in seven, abolition of 24-hour shifts, double rates of pay for all overtime work and for work on Sundays and holidays, abolition of company unions and the reinstatement of all men discharged for union activities with pay for time lost.

The strike situation so far as affecting the Chester mill, remained unchanged Tuesday, according to reports from both the strikers and mill officials. Leaders of the strike movement claim that more than 50 men are out at the Chester plant, while heads of the mill assert that the local works is still "operating 100 per cent."

T. R. Timothy, general manager of the Chester works, is in receipt of a report concerning the operations of the several sheet and tin plants of the American Sheet & Tin Plate company when work was resumed Monday morning. The report is as follows:

Mills operating 100 per cent:

Sheet—Dover, O.; Mercer, Pa.; Old Meadow, Pa.; Scottsdale, Pa.; Wellsville, O.; Wood, Pa.

Tin—Cambridge, O.; Chester, W. Va.; Ferrall, Pa.; Morgantown, W. Va.; Shenango works, New Castle, Pa.

The following sheet mill plants were operating 85 per cent:

Gary, Ind., 11 mills; Guernsey, Cambridge, O., 7 mills; Hyde, Pa., 6 mills; Leechburg, Pa., 9 mills; Vandergrift, Pa., 33 mills.

The tin mills at Gary with 7 mills in operation; New Castle, with 19 and the Pennsylvania works at New Kensington with two and the Pittsburgh works, also at New Kensington, with 3 mills, were operating 68 per cent.

NEW CUMBERLAND HIGH READY FOR HARD GAME

The New Cumberland gridiron team is making preparations for what they believe will be their hardest fought game of the season next Saturday when they clash with the Leetonia High School on the county seat grounds.

Elated over the showing which they made at Burgettstown last Friday with a crippled team, they held the fast Burgettstown highs to a tie score of 7 to 7. The county seat lads feel confident that they will take the Leetonia boys into camp but realize that this eleven is one of the strongest aggregations, which they have to meet this season.

In the Burgettstown game, New Cumberland scored in the first four plays with a forward pass and a run from Simon to R. Cowl. Several times afterwards, the county seat boys kept the ball close to the goal but never once after that were they able to put the ball across.

Because of injuries sustained in previous games the New Cumberland team was crippled by the loss of two of its best players. However, both men expect to be in the game next Saturday. Simon, McCrea, R. Cowl, Glass and Braden starred for the Fayette county boys.

Joint Literary Meeting

A joint literary meeting of the Zeta Gathian and the Kappa Alpha Literary societies of the Chester high school will be held in the high school building next Thursday afternoon. The program will consist of debates, readings and other literary numbers.

PREMATURE HALLOWEEN CELEBRATIONS BANNED

Premature Hallowe'en celebrations or the wilful destruction of property at any time, will not be permitted in Chester this year, Mayor Dalrymple has announced. Chief of Police J. R. Dolby has been instructed to arrests youngsters who ignore the warning.

"Soaping of windows is under the ban," the mayor announced. "Youngsters who destroy property in Hallowe'en celebrations will be arrested and fine, if apprehended."

It is probably that extra plain clothes men will be sworn in for police duty on Hallowe'en night, it has been announced. The officials are not opposed to harmless pranks but such fun must be limited to the one night. Friday, October 31.

Chester will have no Hallowe'en celebration this year but many people from this side of the river are planning to spend the evening in East Liverpool when the returned soldiers will be honored.

OUTLINE MILL MEN'S DEMANDS

Strikers Distribute Bills In Chester—Situation Here Said to Be Unchanged Tuesday.

As a means of acquainting the public as to the causes of the general strike of steel workers throughout the United States, hand bills, giving the 12 demands which the mill men are asking for a settlement of the strike, were distributed over the entire town last night. The hand bill is signed by the National Committee for Organizing Iron and Steel Workers, John Fitzpatrick, Chicago, chairman, and Wm. Z. Foster, Pittsburgh, secretary-treasurer.

Chief among the demands are the eight-hour day, one day's rest in seven, abolition of 24-hour shifts, double rates of pay for all overtime work and for work on Sundays and holidays, abolition of company unions and the reinstatement of all men discharged for union activities with pay for time lost.

The strike situation so far as affecting the Chester mill, remained unchanged Tuesday, according to reports from both the strikers and mill officials. Leaders of the strike movement claim that more than 50 men were out at the Chester plant, while heads of the mill assert that the local works is still "operating 100 per cent."

T. R. Timothy, general manager of the Chester works, is in receipt of a report concerning the operations of the several sheet and tin plants of the American Sheet & Tin Plate company when work was resumed Monday morning. The report is as follows:

Mills operating 100 per cent:

Sheet—Dover, O.; Mercer, Pa.; Old Meadow, Pa.; Scottsdale, Pa.; Wellsville, O.; Wood, Pa.

Tin—Cambridge, O.; Chester, W. Va.; Ferrall, Pa.; Morgantown, W. Va.; Shenango works, New Castle, Pa.

The following sheet mill plants were operating 85 per cent:

Gary, Ind., 11 mills; Guernsey, Cambridge, O., 7 mills; Hyde, Pa., 6 mills; Leechburg, Pa., 9 mills; Vandergrift, Pa., 33 mills.

The tin mills at Gary with 7 mills in operation; New Castle, with 19 and the Pennsylvania works at New Kensington with two and the Pittsburgh works, also at New Kensington, with 3 mills, were operating 68 per cent.

NEW CUMBERLAND HIGH READY FOR HARD GAME

The New Cumberland gridiron team is making preparations for what they believe will be their hardest fought game of the season next Saturday when they clash with the Leetonia High School on the county seat grounds.

Elated over the showing which they made at Burgettstown last Friday with a crippled team, they held the fast Burgettstown high to the score of 7 to 7. The county seat lads feel confident that they will take the Leetonia boys into camp but realize that this eleven is one of the strongest aggregations, which they have to meet this season.

In the Burgettstown game, New Cumberland scored in the first four plays with a forward pass and a run from Simon to R. Cowl. Several times afterwards, the county seat boys kept the ball close to the goal but never once after that were they able to put the ball across.

Because of injuries sustained in previous games the New Cumberland team was crippled by the loss of two of its best players. However, both men expect to be in the game next Saturday. Simon, McCrea, R. Cowl, Glass and Bradley starred for the Haines county boys.

DUET HELD FOR GRAND LARCENY

Pleading guilty to the charge of grand larceny in connection with the theft of $36 worth of ware from the Taylor, Smith and Taylor pottery, last week, Willard E. Llewellyn of Chester and C. C. Edwards of Parkersburg, W. Va., were held for grand jury under heavy bond bail by Justice A. G. Allison, when arraigned for a hearing Monday evening.

Edward's bond was fixed at $2,000 while that of Llewellyn's was placed at $500. The men are to be taken to New Cumberland Tuesday and turned over to the safekeeping of Sheriff Armour S. Cooper until their cases are called for by the grand jury, unless the bail is furnished in the meantime.

Llewellyn and Edwards were taken into custody late Monday afternoon by Chief of Police John Dolby and Constable Hiram Allison after warrants for their arrest had been sworn to by officials of the pottery.

According to the allegations, Llewellyn, who is employed in the pottery, made away with a large quantity of the ware last Friday. The pair were making preparations to ship the crockery to Parkersburg, W. Va., where Edwards is said to conduct a store, when surprised by the police.

When first arraigned, the men declared they were innocent of the charges but after being questioned by Prosecuting Attorney W. W. Ingram, who conducted the investigation, the men admitted their guilt. Following the trial they were taken to the Chester jail where they were locked up for the night. Bail had not been furnished Tuesday morning.

Several weeks ago the night watchman of the Taylor, Smith and Taylor pottery discovered two men in the warehouse but they fled. He gave chase but the pair managed to make their getaway in a boat, which had been moored to the river shore.

He was expected to have been relieved shortly, his successor, Baron Romano Avezzano, having been appointed in accordance with the diplomatic precedent that an ambassador that has served during the war at the capital of an allied nation shall be relieved when peace is re-established.

Count Di Cellere is known to have worked very hard of late in connection with the Adriatic problem and the Flume situation and this may have hastened his death.

Reliable Method of Hair Care

Hair is by far the most conspicuous thing about us and is probably the most easily damaged by bad or careless treatment. If we are very careful in hair washing, we will have virtually no hair troubles. An especially fine shampoo for this weather, one that brings out all the natural beauty of the hair, that dissolves and entirely removes all dandruff, excess oil and dirt, can easily be used at trifling expense by simply dissolving a teaspoonful of canthox (which you can get at any druggist's), in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. This chemically dissolves all impurities and creates a sooth cooling lather. Rinsing leaves the scalp spotlessly clean, soft and pliant, while the hair takes on the glossy richness of natural color, also a fluffiness which makes it seem much heavier than it is. After canthox shampoo, arranging the hair is a pleasure.

No Need To Be Thin, Scrawny or Sallow

If you are thin and want to be plump; if you have wrinkles in your face that you are not proud of; if the skin is sallow or subject to pimples or blackheads, take Mi-o-na stomach tablets for two weeks and notice the change.

The majority of the thin people are thin because the stomach does not perform its duties properly. It is not secreting sufficient of the natural digestive juices and in consequence does not extract from the food enough nutritive matter to nourish every part of the body.

Mi-o-na stomach tablets are intended to build up the stomach so that it will act properly and extract from the food the elements necessary to form flesh.

If you are thin try two weeks treatment of Mi-o-na stomach tablets—they are small easily swallowed and are sold on the guarantee of money back if they do not overcome chronic indigestion, acute or chronic, stop heartburn, sour stomach, and any after dinner distress.

For sale by Bulger's Pharmacy and all druggists.

BUCKEYE STATE BRIEFS

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS
Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must keep your body free from poisonous wastes. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets (a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil) act on the liver and bowels like calomel yet have no dangerous after effect. Take one nightly and note results.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually, 10c and 25c.

How Fat Folks May Become Thin

If you are suddenly becoming stout, or if you have been getting fat for years, the cause is generally the same—lack of oxygen carrying power of the blood. This trouble occurs mostly in men and women over thirty, but it may be easily treated and without any of the privations most fat people imagine. Take a glass of water to your druggist and get a box of Physnola. Take five grains after each meal and at bedtime. Wonderful results should be quickly accomplished by this simple treatment.

Be sure however you get the genuine Physnola. It is sold up in original sealed packages. It is pleasant to take and gives prompt results. Chas. T. Larkins can supply you.

Of Course I'll Take Celery King

I take it every season and so do mother and the children.

It's old fashioned and made of roots and herbs, but it's right there, just the same, and costs next to nothing.

We all think it's the best tonic laxative we ever heard about, and so do other people we have recommended it to.

Take it every other night for three weeks, if you want to feel better, sleep better, work better and be better.

Purifies the blood, clears the skin and chases away that worn out feeling. Brew a cup tonight just like you would tea. You'll like it.

"IS EVERYBODY BUYING CINDERELLAS NOW?"

Back of the Partition

Following are some extracts from arguments and conversations overheard in our shipping department:

"Is everybody buying Cinderellas now?"

"Van! Why don't you divide them up? I don't recall a day in the last three months that I haven't delivered Cinderella stoves. You are not giving the other fellows their share."

"When you get on the end of a Cinderella you know you have a hold of a stove."

"Get the crew, here's another Cinderella Dual Range for Wellsville!"

"Let's strike; they used to order one Cinderella Dual Range (Combination Gas and Coal) at a time, but now they order five."

"I'll bet the hot-dogs to the bunch that the Cinderella Hot Blast will weigh twice as much as any other hot blast. (The hot-dog is their common bet, for the place is just around the corner.)"

"I thought you said that car of Cinderellas would be enough to run us this winter and every time we go to the freight depot there is a bunch of 'Don't forget to save me a 16' Cinderella H. B. stoves there."

Really first hand information comes from the shipping department. They receive the shipments in the rough stage, inspect and assemble them and if they are not up to the standard the buyers' attention is called, consequently the shipment is returned and the line dropped.

Harvard Only Big Eleven That

ARMY BUCKS LINE

Fact Is Attributed to Inexperience In Handling
Passes.

NEW YORK Oct. 21—Forward passing isn't going to be very popular this season. Harvard is the only big eleven that has gone in for the spectacular aerial game in the early games. West Point, Cornell, Dartmouth, Princeton, and even Yale teams that frequently employed airline plays in the period before war conditions stopped intercollegiate football, apparently are going to concentrate on running attacks this season.

The refusal of the cadets to try passes against the heavy Syracuse team was inexplicable, as Oliphant who is helping to coach the Army squad, started as an expert manipulator of overhead plays while playing at West Point. Instead of risking a little on the chance of making good a forward pass, the cadets resorted to the old army attack of tandem thru tackle as the best means of gaining thru the heavy Orange line which, unfortunately for West Point, was too strong for this kind of warfare and prevented the Army backs from crossing the Syracuse goal line.

Smiling Harry Maxwell, the Alliance street car conductor, former East Liverpool man, met Bill Leon, "The Greek Demon," Friday night at Salem and squelched the Greek's claims for state championship in the heavyweight class. At the end of the second fall Maxwell was proclaimed winner. Each man took a fall. Leon got the first fall at the end of 31 minutes with a body scissors and hammer lock. Maxwell came back strong and with the Frank Gotch too hold forced Leon to quit after ten minutes. It was on this hold that Leon had a bone broken in his left foot and was unable to go on with the bout, thus giving the match to Maxwell.

The Northland and the Southland will meet next Saturday in the first big intersectional football clash of the season when the Panthers and the Georgia Institute of Technology battle at Forbes Field. Ever since it was announced early last spring that this game had been arranged it has been looked forward to with great interest by followers of the gridiron sport in this district and elsewhere. It will bring together a team that has for the past five years been ranked as one of the leaders in the North and the outfit which is admitted to be the best in the South. The Georgians will arrive in Pittsburgh Thursday. They will practice Friday at Forbes Field.

The praises of the Ohio State backfield combination are being sung long and loudly. The Stinchcomb-Harley-Williamson outfit looks pretty good in Columbus. All three are fast. Stinchcomb and the redoubtable Harley are probably as fast as anything wearing the cleated shoe in Big Ten circles. Williamson's bucking in the Cincinnati game was good to look upon. The Salem, O., lad plunged through the visitor's line almost at will, making 35 yards on his first attempt.

BONDS IS VETERAN

Matchmaker Matt Hinkle Has Arranged Good Pre-lims.

AKRON, Oct. 21.—Akron fans, disappointed because the Bryan Downey-K. O. Willie Loughlin bout was called off, now are centering their attention on the Bob Martin-Joe Bonds fifteen-round match at the armory Oct. 28. As this will be Martin's first professional appearance since capturing the A. E. F. heavyweight title, the bout will attract nation wide interest. Martin has been mentioned as the next opponent of Jack Dempsey, and the coming tilt will show whether he is champion.

Bonds, a veteran of more than 100 bouts, is a fighter to test the ability of any man. He is big, rangy fellow who tips the scale at about 185 pounds when in condition, and carries a wicked wallop in either hand. Bonds now is training at Jimmy Dunn's stable in Cleveland and has selected a couple fast heavies to work with.

Under Jimmy Bronson's direction, Martin is working out at his camp at Springfield lake and doing gym work at the Firestone club house. He is fast rounding into the pink of condition.

Matt Hinkle, matchmaker for the 146th infantry, under whose auspices the bout will be held has arranged the preliminaries to the big battle. Altogether forty-one rounds of boxing will be furnished. Eddie Mulvaney and Johnny Shea will meet for the third time in the semi-final of ten rounds. Eddie Atlas and George Richley, Cleveland, will go eight rounds in one of the prelims, and Joe Pick is matched with Jimmy Katz Cleveland, in the curtain raiser.

GOBS GET CHOICE OF FOUR STATIONS

Men enlisting in the U. S. navy will be given their choice of four naval training stations at which to prepare for active sea duty, Chief Water Tender William Small in charge of the U. S. navy recruiting station Little building, was advised Monday.

Recruits will be trained at Great Lakes, Ill., New port, R. I., Hampton Roads, Va., and San Francisco, Cal. Heretofore all men recruited in this city have been sent to the Great Lakes Naval Training Station in Chicago.

Eller Proved He Was "Ace";
Was Twirling Hero of Reds

By N. E. BROWN.

When Hod Eller, debonair young pitcher of the Reds, blew into his home town of Danville, Ill., the other day, he got a bigger reception than Joe Cannon did when he returned after winning a place in congress, which, according to a Danville friend, was some little home coming.

Well, all we have to say, is that Hod deserves it. For Hod stands out as the pitching hero of the Reds in the recent world series.

First of all, Eller is the only Cincin-ti hurler who can say, "I licked 'em twice." He turned the trick—as most folks know—in the fifth game by shutting out the White Sox on three bingles and then went in and stopped the Sox in the eighth and fatal game after they had scared Cincin-ti fans to death by copping two contests in a row.

Eller had tougher sledding than in the eighth game, but, thanks to the heavy hitting of his teammates, weathered the stiffer opposition the Sox presented. At no time in this game did Eller show any signs of becoming unstrung or temporarily off his equilibrium.

Eller broke into fame early last season by pitching a no-hit game against the Cardinals on May 11 at Cincinnati. Only three Cards reaching first, all of them on passes. While he walked three, Eller fanned eight.

ENGLAND FACES MAN SHORTAGE

LONDON, Oct. 21.—There are 2,000,000 "bachelor girls" in Great Britain who have given up all hope of getting husbands because of the shortage of men, according to Hilda M. Love, a prominent woman writer.

Miss Love declared that a new comradeship is growing up among women as a result of the involuntary reduction of marriages. There are many instances, she said, especially among workers, where two or more girls have established home together, adopting orphaned children to rear. Thus they find some of the comforts of home and family life despite the absence of husbands.

Harvard Only Big Eleven That
Has Gone In for Aerial Play.

ARMY BUCKS LINE

Fact Is Attributed to Inexperience In Handling
Passes.

NEW YORK Oct. 21.—Forward passing isn't going to be very popular this season. Harvard is the only big eleven that has gone in for the spectacular aerial game in the early games. West Point, Cornell, Dartmouth, Princeton, and even Yale teams that frequently employed airline plays in the period before war conditions stopped intercollegiate football, apparently are going to concentrate on running attacks this season.

The refusal of the cadets to try passes against the heavy Syracuse team was inexplicable, as Oliphant who is helping to coach the Army squad, starred as an expert manipulator of overhead plays while playing at West Point. Instead of risking a little on the chance of making good a forward pass, the cadets resorted to the old army attack of a tandem thru tackle as the best means of gaining thru the heavy Orange line which, unfortunately for West Point, was too strong for this kind of warfare and prevented the Army backs from crossing the Syracuse goal line.

Princeton played against Lafayette a game similar to West Point's. If the Orange and Black had been shown anything in the way of a passing game it was kept a secret. But on the showing made in the Lafayette game it was evident that the Tigers had been instructed but little in any sort of an offense.

Four times Cornell came within striking distance of Williams' goal, but on each occasion the play called was a field goal by Capt. Shiverick. Instead of taking chance of scoring by the passing route. After four futile attempts the Cornell leader finally booted the water-soaked ball over for the only tally made by either side.

The failure of teams like Dartmouth, Penn, Brown and others to use the overhead attack which is to be successful requires expert handling of the ball, may be explained by lack of practice and the inexperience of green plays. But then this line of reasoning would put Harvard in very advanced state of perfection, as the Crimson didn't hesitate to employ forward passes on numerous occasions against Colby and with considerable success.

Humphreys, who played at quarterback in place of Capt. Murray, who took a day off, proved adept as a manipulator of short and long flings and his throwing of the leather did much to baffle the visitors' defense.

Coach Jerry Osterhouse will give his men a thorough drilling every evening of this week in preparation for the first home game of the Grands and is confident that they will be in perfect condition to go against the visitors.

The Grands have experienced a little hard luck to start off the season with, but are sure that next Sunday's game will see them going strong on the road to a good season. The first Sunday the Grands were scheduled to play here it rained. The Steubenville Shamrocks were the intended opponents. But Old Jupe stepped in and negotiations were called off. The Saturday following was chosen, that's last Saturday. Friday the Shamrocks' management notified Manager Callahan of the Grands that on account of a mixup in dates he would be unable to bring his team to East Liverpool. And then Callahan booked Newell, and Newell just booked, and that's all. In other words the West Virginians failed to appear at West End park Saturday afternoon.

Manager Wainwaring, of the Alliance team, has promised to have his team here early Sunday morning. The game is scheduled to start at 3 o'clock.

SPORTING GOSSIP

The Salem Semi-Professional team underwent a reorganization last week and as a result now have one of the fastest elevens in the county. They will make formidable opposition for the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Last Sunday the Salem gridironers were defeated in their first game following reorganization by the Youngstown Patricians, at Youngstown, 7-0. The game was one of the best contests staged on Steel City field this fall, it is said. Ray Thom, as team scored in the final few minutes of play. The outfit was scheduled to play the Vets here two weeks ago but a disruption of the team occurred at the last minute and forced a cancellation. Pete Scullion, former catcher for the Grand Athletics, an all-around athlete himself, is managing the Quakers this fall and states that he is now making up a schedule which will include practically the best of the teams in this district. This is evidenced by the fact that at the start off he contracted to take on the Patricians, always known as one of the best professional teams in Ohio. In years before the Patricians have been in the running for national football championship honors and although they never attained the supreme object they furnished enough opposition to Jim Thorpe's team at Canton, the Akron, Cleveland and Massillon squads to make things interesting. Manager Wise of the Veterans is now negotiating with Scullion for a series of two games. If the deal goes through East Liverpool fans will be given a first class attraction when the Quakers appear here.

"Smiling" Harry Maxwell, the Alliance street car conductor, former East Liverpool man, met Bill Leon, "The Greek Demon," Friday night at Salem and squelched the Greek's claims for state championship in the heavyweight class. At the end of the second fall Maxwell was proclaimed winner. Each man took a fall. Leon got the first fall at the end of 31 minutes with a body scissors and hammer lock. Maxwell came back strong and with the Frank Gotch toe hold forced Leon to quit after ten minutes. It was on this hold that Leon had a bone broken in his left foot and was unable to go on with the bout, thus giving the match to Maxwell.

The Northland and the Southland will meet next Saturday in the first big intersectional football clash of the season when the Panthers and the Georgia Institute of Technology battle at Forbes Field. Ever since it was announced early last spring that this game had been arranged it has been looked forward to with great interest by followers of the gridiron sport in this district and elsewhere. It will bring together a team that has for the past five years been ranked as one of the leaders in the North and the outfit which is admitted to be the best in the South. The Georgians will arrive in Pittsburgh Thursday. They will practice Friday at Forbes Field.

The praises of the Ohio State backfield combination are being sung long and loudly. The Stinchcomb-Harley-Williamson outfit looks pretty good in Columbus. All three are fast. Stinchcomb and the redoubtable Harley Williamson's bucking in the Cincinnati game was good to look upon. The Wards, O., lad plunged through the visitor's line almost at will, making 35 yards on his first attempt.

YOUNGSTOWN BUILDING
WRECKED BY BLAST

YOUNGSTOWN, Oct. 21.—The Griffen-Liebman block in Holmes street was badly wrecked by a gas explosion about midnight. The building was occupied by the Famous Biscuit company, Dakotas Confectionery, Egyptian Dry Cleaning company and Wood & Evans, soda fountain supply dealers. Damage was confined almost entirely to the building. The roof and both ends of the structure were badly shattered. Although several persons were in the building at the time of the explosion no one was hurt. The loss runs well into the thousands of dollars.

He turned the trick—as most folks know—in the fifth game by shutting out the White Sox on three bungles and then went in and stopped the Sox in the eighth and fatal game after they had scared Cincinatti fans to death by copping two contests in a row.

Eller played true to form in the series. Moran, in pre-series stories, stated that Eller was the ace of his wonderful pitching crew. All of which was a mighty nice compliment to Eller. But when Moran gave Ring and then Fisher a chance at the White Sox and left Eller on the bench, some fans began to wonder why Pat didn't trot out Hod. Some body dug up the dope that Moran didn't dare use Eller with the series close, because Eller was apt to be nervous and wild in a pinch.

But Eller kicked that story in to a cocked hat when he did get a chance. He not only tamed the much-touted White Sox sluggers, bunters and walkers, but started the winning rally for the Reds with a lusty swat.

He set what is at least a modern series record when he fanned six men in a row in two innings of that game. Eller had fanned four or five men in a row a couple of times during the past season, so the fact wasn't as remarkable for Eller as it sounded and yet it was a great one, considering the men he faced.

Eller had tougher sledding than in the eighth game, but, thanks to the heavy hitting of his teammates, weathered the stiffer opposition the Sox presented. At no time in this game did Eller show any signs of becoming unstrung or temporarily off his equilibrium.

Eller broke into fame early last season by pitching a no-hit game against the Cardinals on May 11 at Cincinnati. Only three Cards reaching first, all of them on passes. While he walked three, Eller fanned eight.
